New Britain Sluggers Handed Out Goose-egg and Took Twelve.

Artie Romer arrived in Bridgeport yesterday after two weeks' suspension, clearly showing to the multitude that he was not in condition. Nolte, who relieved him, was worse, while Taylor, something new from the Eastern Association, was shown in the ninth session, one hit being corralled from his delivery. It was the leading sluggers of the league, the New Britain, whom three pitchers were pitted against, and the way the former showed the ball all over Newfield slugged the clouters were. They were not content with a shutout, but rubbed it in good and hard, rounding up a dozen tallies. Sandwiched between the hits of the visitors were some of the rankest errors imaginable, every man on the team being an offender except Bannan and Taylor, the latter not being in long enough to show how he could slip up. The locals never had a chance to get on base, as they were hit by a pitched ball. It was right at the start the home team slipped up in this particular. Steinhauser was hit by a pitched ball, Bannan's sacrifice brought both Almeida and Ward upon the ball. There they deliberated and the sacrifice went for a hit. Steinhauser seeing that third was unguarded, and thinking that the ball had been thrown to first, beat it for the third station. Almeida held the New Britain runners into his hands. Hill's grounder first would have placed Steinhauser on third while Ladd's fly to the outfield would have scored him. Chapple Ward showed something in the pitching line, letting down the locals with three hits, two of which were singles. The third, a wicked curve of Koehrer's, might have been fielded had not Ward gotten his chest in the way of it. The score:

THE BASE BALL TIPS

In last place again.

Two games today in New Haven. We ought to take one of them, but let's hope that two come our way.

Koehrer turned back three runners at second yesterday. He did the same today before.

Artie Romer was not in condition to pitch yesterday. He was in wrong when he tried to stop the New Britain sluggers.

Manager Hanna did not have sluggers enough to get into the game. The Ohio league and getting Plummer, who played right field. Plummer got three hits and should have had a fourth yesterday had not umpire Mason robbed him. The ball was fair a mile, all the Orators having a good laugh over the decision.

Umpire Mason gave the worst exhibition of umpiring yesterday ever seen at Newfield. His style the day before was a masterpiece. He was so bad that the grand stand threw lemons his way, but curse it, none of them hit him. He stopped the game on one occasion and threatened to put a kid out of the grounds if he threw the lemon which he held in his hand. The kid beat it for cover, although a number reported that they be given the fruit to hurl at Mason.

It begins to look more and more every day that Frank Bowerman, now plotting the Boston Nationals, will again do the back stop work for the New York Yankees. Bowerman is worth more to McGraw than he is to President Dovey. At present Bowerman is in New York. The deal probably being completed this week. President John S. C. Dovey, the new leader, has decided that reconstruction will be the new rule for the Orphans, and has named J. J. McGraw, on Beaumont, Ritchey and Dahlen.

It is rumored that Roy Thomas, the University of Pennsylvania, who was recently released by Pittsburgh, will be selected to take up Frank Bowerman's managerial job on the Boston Nationals.

The Pirates opened their new $100,000 field, Forbes Field, yesterday by losing to the Chicago Cubs 3-2.

Tommy Downey came in for his usual daily hit yesterday.

If he can keep up the clouting that he started on Tuesday in Holyoke and continued yesterday at Newfield, Downey will be a force to be reckoned with for the Ohio League where he gained a reputation second to none as a fence kicker.

Rumors are afloat that Umpire Hugh Rorty, who recently went to the New England League, has been ordered to report to the National League for duty. Dave Cusick, a former Connecticut League ump, who has been used all season in the National League, has been dropped from the staff. It is his place that Rorty has been asked to fill.

Brennan who played the field for Hartford and New Britain, has been taken up by Waterbury to try and fill the gap in center garden, until they have recovered from his illness.

Next home game will be on Saturday at the Hartford grounds. There will be here for a double header. With any kind of luck we should take both games, as Hack Schuman has no more of the "Old Man" League. Let's batted him out of the box last Friday.

The attraction for Sunday at Steeplechase will be the Springfield Ponies. The same team will be here on the morning of the 1st. The afternoon game will be played in Springfield while at Newfield the Industrial League teams will hold sway.

The West Ends will have for the attraction at West End Park this Sunday instead of the Fort Stocum soldiers as previously announced, the U. S. Nebraska team. This is the team that defeated the West Ends at the beginning of the season in a fourteen inning contest. Only pitcher, McGraw, is the best twirler who has ever appeared in Bridgeport outside of the big leagues. He pitched the 4-3 game last night, but he is not the big league scout who has been after him, but he prefers to play with the sailors.

The Oxford A. C. would like to play the Bengal Juniors Sunday at 2:30, on the Eagle street grounds. Answer through the Farmer.

The Oxford A. C. would like to take on the West End Boys' Club for Monday at 2:30, on the Eagle street grounds, the Lenox team the Sunday following, and the Closures Sunday, July 18. All teams kindly answer through the Farmer. Return games will follow.

Manager O'Rourke has succeeded in placing Cuthbert McAlor with one of the strong clubs in the Virginia league. He still has strings on him, and may recall the youngster at any time.

Manager Connery of Hartford has protested the Senator-Waterbury game of yesterday because of a decision by Umpire Cullen. In the ninth inning after two Senators were on Lefty Levens hit for two bags. In taking second he fell over Captain Mike Doherty of the Authors injuring his leg. Levens asked for a runner, Doherty selecting Hart. Connery objected as Hart would soon bat, and a man cannot be taken from the base without a runner to his relief. It was on the coaching line and as Doherty insisted upon Hart running and declined to allow Scanlon to run, Connery took Levens out of the game and put Scanlon in his place. When Scanlon stepped on the bag, Connery ordered Levens to the bench, and as he walked across the diamond Bronkie touched him with the ball. Umpire Cullen calling him out.

Tom Quinn's Undeclared College Boys will accept the challenge of Keating's Pets. If the game with the Bridgeport Colored Giants falls through, and provided Keating's Pets will play for "Win and take all."
